MESSAGE FROM NORTH YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

North Yorkshire County Council is responsible under the Children and Families Act 2014 for reviewing how special education is provided in North Yorkshire and for making sure there are enough places in education for children and young people with SEND. We work closely with parents, carers, young people, local groups, education providers and professionals so we can meet this responsibility in the best possible way.

We want to hear from parents, carers and professionals about your views on special education - this will help us to shape future services. Your input will help form a strategic plan for how we will provide support for young people with SEND in North Yorkshire in future.

For example, if you are a parent we'd like to know about:

- services you use now and how they could be better;
 - Services you want or need, but can't find; or
- How you found the service(s) you need, what helped you to find them and any improvements we could make.

We are holding events across the county in November, you do not need to register for these events.

The Selby event will be held on 20 November, 12.30pm - 2.30pm at Selby Town Hall
